

1. Trial Subscription

3.1 The Website provides a facility for you to test the Subscription Services by way of a trial subscription ("Trial Subscription"). In order to set up such a Trial Subscription you will be required to complete the information requested in the online form.

3.2 On receipt and acceptance of your application for a trial subscription, PaymentsCompliance shall provide you with such access codes and passwords as are required to give you limited access to the site for the duration of your Trial Subscription. Your use of the Website and the Materials during your Trial Subscription shall be subject to these Terms and such other conditions as may be agreed specific to such Trial Subscription.

3.3 At the end of your Trial Subscription your access to the Subscription Services shall be terminated automatically. If you wish to continue to access the Subscription Services you will be required to place an order for a Subscription.

